What is it Hon. Daniel Ngoima?

Hon. Ngoima: Mr. Speaker Sir, I have concern about Article 190 (5) (f). The foregoing chair has read it as 195. Kindly advise, if someone wants to go and open that Article 195 in our Standing Orders, will he/she be reading the same with 190 (5) (f)?

The Deputy Speaker: Hon. Ngoima, I think Hon. Chairperson, Committee on Environment read it as Article 195 (f) you read it that way or Article, it is Standing Order not Article. Standing Order 190 (5) (f). I don't see any harm with the way the Hon. Chair, environment read it.

Hon. Ngoima: Just for correction going forward, what will you read the Standing Order No. 190 (5) as you put it and Standing Order No. 195?

The Deputy Speaker: Hon. Daniel Ngoima, kindly be guided, you read it as Standing Order 195 (f) and you can as well read it as Standing Order 190 (5) (f). If you go to that 190 you will the (5) and then proceed to (f). I think you are guided and I will put that matter to rest at that point.

Hon. Members, allow me to invite Hon. Frida because I overheard her asking whether laying on the floor and on the table of the house is one and the same thing. I now give her that opportunity to make the clarification to the whole house. Hon. Frida Maua, please.

Hon. (Ms.) Maua: Thank you Mr. Speaker Sir, I think the matter was corrected and I am okay.
